Can't make it to these programs? Find out more about e-Readers with Library's online guide. Before you give this hot holiday gift, it's important to know which eReaders are compatible with the Library's downloadable collection. By using your Library Card, you can download all sorts of ebooks for free. So that eReader you give will keep on giving long after it's unwrapped. To learn about which eReader works best for all the booklovers on your gift list, log onto <http://www.cincinnatiLibrary.org/news/2010/ereadersholidays.html>.

Brighten up your holidays by checking out this list of new titles from the Library's collection.

Your entire family will find lots of fun ways to enrich their holiday experience for free at their local Library. The Library offers plenty of holiday entertainment and how-to guides (everything from how to make hand-made gifts and decorations to how to build a gingerbread house or dress up a dinner table). Plus, there's a vast collection of cookbooks full of unique recipes especially for the holidays.

You'll also find similar choices to check out for children and teens. There are cookbooks for kids, books on children's crafts, and classic holiday stories or folktales. There are also numerous books and DVDs featuring inspiring stories about holiday traditions around the world. Check out our list of holiday books! at <http://www.cincinnatiLibrary.org/booklists/?id=holidaybooks10!>
